MONDAY:

On my first morning in Stockholm, I woke up in Slagsta gate hotel, which was very big. At around 7am all the teams gathered in the front. A bus picked us up and drove us to the Karsby international school, where we had breakfast. After breakfast we had a tour of the school.

It was really big, students even had a break room, with a cafe and ping pong tables. Then they led us to the gym. Everyone had a presentation about themselves.

During the tour I interacted with a few members, everyone was very nice and I even made friends with some of the students from Karsby school. After lunch we had workshops. In the evening we made our own dinner. At around 6pm a bus picked us up and drove to the hotel.

TUESDAY:

Second morning we gathered at 7am, drove to school, eat breakfast and got ourselves a prepacked lunch. After that, we walked to the tube and took a train to the central.

Then we took a boat to a little island in the middle of Stockholm (Skansen zoo), the sea stretched through Stockholm and I was very impressed by that. In the zoo I didn't see many animals. After the zoo we went to the Vasa museum, which had an enormous ship in it. It looked insane. Then we took a bus to a small shopping center and we had dinner in IKEA.

WEDNESDAY:

On Wednesday we visited the City hall, where Nobel banquets are being held. Inside it had an epic room with golden mosaics. After that, we passed the Parliament, which was no. 1 destination on my list. It was very big, right at the entrance of the old city.

Then we went by the Kings palace and saw kings guard exchange, pretty cool.

Nobels prize museum was very nice too and people under 18 have a free ticket. After the museum I decided to explore the old city. First I went to the Ridderholm church where monarchs are buried, but it was closed, so i visited the Appeal court. I walked a little further and got to the sea, where I could see City hall from the other side.

When I had enough of exploring I went back to the gathering point. On the way back, to my surprise, I passed the Supreme court of Sweden, which is my favourite building from that day. We ate dinner in an asian buffet.

THURSDAY:

On Thursday we visited adrenaline park, on the edge of Stockholm. It was very big and it had a lot of stages, even one with only ziplines, which was my favourite.

Lunch was great too, we had spaghetti carbonara. Then they took us to the supermarket and back to the hotel.

FRIDAY:

We were in school the whole day and connected with students. First we had national costumes presentation, then lunch. After that we attended spanish, music and gym class.

During the break I played some ping pong with students. They prepared a fancy dinner with a three course menu and a short film.

CONCLUSION:

It was an awesome experience and I made a ton of new friends. I could practice my social skills, english and connected with other cultures.
